All items included in your shipment that are considered to be of extraordinary (unusual) value must be specifically identified, and the carrier must be advised that they are included in the shipment. Items of extraordinary value are defined as those items having a value greater than $100.00 per pound.

Typical household articles which may constitute items of extraordinary value are:

- Currency
- Coins
- Jewelry
- Precious metals
- Precious or semi-precious stones or gems
- China sets
- Crystal
- Figurines
- Fur or fur garments
- Antiques
- Oriental rugs or tapestries
- Rare collectible items
- Objects of art
- Computer software programs
- Manuscripts
- Other rare documents

Other items may fall into this category and must be identified also. The purpose of this inventory is to assist you in identifying articles of extraordinary or unusual value in order that the carrier will be aware of those items which require special handling and protection. Failure to identify such articles will result in limited carrier liability.

MUST INCLUDE ANY IDENTIFYING NUMBERS FOR ANY SEALS USED ON A PARTICULAR BOX OR CONTAINER.
